

Piero Umiliani Ode To Duke Ellington

When I was 14 years old, in 1940, I lived in Florence. One day I found a record in a little book shop. The title of the album was "Hot Dots" and it was published by the Blue Bird label, New York.
In Italy, at that time, nobody knew who Duke Ellington was, and it was hard to listen to American music. You could have been arrested for doing that! The war started, I remember that every time I played "Mood Indigo" on my piano, it was the most wonderful piece of music to me. Such a sweet melody. Finally when the American troops arrived in Florence they brought with them the "Edison" records, 12 CMG. Thanks! Now I discovered the rhythm and the sounds for this music.
